MANSFIELD UNIVERSITY DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC SPRING 84-85 VOLUME VII NUMBER 2

FROM THE CHAIR

There are many changes in the air at Mansfield! I am pleased to announce that the graduate program in Music is growing - we expect a large attendance at our classes and workshops this summer, when we will offer our widest range of courses in years. If you are interested, or have friends who might be, write to us!

Courses in music literature, music education and pedagogy plus workshops by Aden Lewis, Jean Willmouth, and John Stevenson, plus our camps for elementary and high school students will make this an exciting summer! We are also developing a cooperative agreement with Bloomsburg and Lock Haven Universities to offer courses on their campuses. Plans are to begin offering courses at Bloomsburg this summer. Watch for details!

I want to recognize and thank Irwin Borodkin for his many years of service as Associate Professor of Cello here at Mansfield. Irwin retired at the end of last semester. A party drawing a capacity crowd was held at Mark's Brother's in December, and we were all regaled by stories about Irwin and Pauline. We will miss these two consistently happy people, and wish them many years of enjoyable retirement!

Again, our thanks to those charter members of the Music Department Alumni Association and a reminder that deductible contributions will be gratefully accepted on a continual basis for the purpose of expanding the outreach of the Music Department through advertising, personal contact with music educators and public relations. Direct cash contributions and checks should be made payable to M.U. Music Department Alumni Association.

We look forward to seeing many of you at the reunion this summer! More information elsewhere.

Dr. Kent Hill,
Chairperson, Music Dept.

The internationally acclaimed Empire Brass Quintet will be on the Mansfield campus for a concert-clinic on Tuesday, April 30, from noon until 2:00 P.M. The group is in the area at that time for a concert with the Williamsport Symphony. Several M.U. students who attended the Empire Quintet Symposium at Tanglewood last summer were able to "twist some arms" and get the quintet to include Mansfield on their itinerary. The Empire Quintet's appearance here is open to the public and anyone wishing to attend or wishing to bring students should contact Mr. David Borsheim who is taking care of local arrangements.

Soupies: "Please register for concert"

The Mansfield University Alumni Office — in conjunction with the University school of music — is planning Alumni Reunion Weekend, scheduled for June 28-29, that will not only honor the reunion anniversary classes, but will highlight Mansfield's soupies as well.

Carla Cole Dick '71 is planning to bring back the University's music alumni who will top off the weekend with a Sunday concert in Steadman Theatre involving band, orchestra, and chorus performers.

All proceeds from the concert will be put toward the music scholarship fund.

A complete schedule and registration form will be listed in the April Mansfieldian. However, music alumni who plan to participate in the concert are requested to detach the 'concert registration form' on this page, so further plans for the concert can be developed. You may be in one, two or all three groups.

IN MEMORIAM

The Music Department was saddened last October by the death of one of our former colleagues, Dr. Helen I. Henry. On November 12th a memorial service was held at The First Baptist Church in Mansfield.

Dr. Henry was born in Joliet, Illinois, the daughter of Donald A. & Elizabeth Conover Henry. She received her B.A. degree in Music Education from the University of Illinois in 1933, M.S. degree from Illinois Wesleyan University and her doctorate in Music Therapy from Northwestern University in 1954. After her graduation from the University of Illinois, she taught at Riverton, Auburn and Palatine. She was in charge of the Music Department at Milwaukee-Downer College. After receiving her Ph D., she came to Mansfield as professor of music at Mansfield University, a position she held until her retirement in 1974.

While a resident of Illinois, she was active in the Springfield Symphony Orchestra, and was one of the founders of the Springfield Municipal Opera. She also was very active in the Springfield Girl Scouts.

She was a member of the Zonta International, Sigma Alpha Iota Professional Music Sorority, Mansfield Public Library Board, and advisor to Tau Beta Sigma Music Sorority.

The 1985 Mansfield University Summer Music Camp is scheduled for July 7 through July 21. Included with this issue of the "CADENZA" is a brochure and application form. We hope you will all help to recruit serious high school students with musical interests and abilities to attend. We are finding that more and more of the summer campers are receiving financial aid from local music boosters and civic organizations within their home communities. Perhaps you can assist worthy students you know in obtaining some financial assistance to attend. The summer camp curriculum will include the study of music theory, literature, improvisation and conducting in addition to both large and small ensemble participation.

Eight students from M.U. have been selected as participants in the 1985 Pennsylvania Intercollegiate Band. The festival is being held at Shippensburg University March 8, 9, and 10 with M.U. alumnus Bennie Truax as the host. The band will perform a concert on Sunday afternoon March 10. Contact Bennie Truax at Shippensburg for tickets, time, and exact location.

MUSIC REUNION

You are missed--Please come back. Reunion weekend needs you! Sign up now! Music for the concert will be chosen according to the number of responses. A shuttle bus between Manser/Laurel and Butler Center will be provided for the handicapped and people who should not climb stairs--or mountains. Both Butler Center and Laurel Dormitory have elevators. Please let us know if you need any special accommodations. We'll do our best.

FREE GIFT

There will be a special secret "surprise" gift for the first fifty soupies who register with payment included. Gift is to be included at the Friday night barbecue entertainment. Please bring gift to the watertower and remember to keep it a secret!

184 FOUND--276 TO GO

Thank you for your overwhelming response to "help us find a lost soupie", but we still have 276 of you to go. Please don't wait for someone else to write us. Call your room-mate, best friend, fraternity brother or sorority sister to see if they know where "good ol' Joe" is now. Then send this information with your concert registration form. The April edition of the "Mansfieldian" will include the reunion registration form and the information you send us will determine the music chosen for the reunion concert. The more-the-merrier. Time is running short. Final plans are being made. A big THANK YOU to all who have already helped us find a Soupie. Send all correspondence to: Music Reunion, Alumni Office, Mansfield University, Mansfield, PA 16933. Please include year of graduation.

CONCERT CHOIR SPRING ACTIVITIES

For the third successive year, the M.U. Concert Choir was invited by Colonel Arnald Gabriel, Commander-Conductor of the U.S. Air Force Band, Ret. to participate in the annual Choral and Band Spring Concert at the Danville, Pa. High School on March 1st and 2nd. Under Col. Gabriel's direction, the Concert Choir performed selections from "Kismet" and "Fiddler on The Roof" with band accompaniment and vocal soloists Sgts. Daisy Jackson, Robert Patton, and Robert Black, all members of the famed "Singing Sergeants", the choral organization attached to the U.S.A.F. Band. The featured work of two subsequent standing-room-only performances was "America's Reach For Th The Sky", an historic musical multi-media and video panorama of flight, portraying the chronology and spirit of the U.S. Air Force, in which Col. Gabriel coordinated all attendant forces to a rousing climax and two standing ovations. During pre-performance rehearsals and a professional recording session, Col. Gabriel, whose picture appears on the cover of the Nov.-Dec. (1984) issue of "Band" magazine accompanying an article, upon his retirement, in tribute to his career, shared many of his professional and musical insights with members of the choir, thus making the event a unique personal and educational experience, as well as a musically rewarding one.

The annual spring tour of the Concert Choir will take place on April 17, 18 and 19 followed by the Spring Concert on April 21st at 3:00 P.M. in Steadman Theatre. All alumni and friends are invited to attend this admission-free performance. The tour will take the choir into the southeastern section of Pennsylvania and western New Jersey. In addition to a variety of selections from choral masterworks spanning many centuries, the featured work of the current repertoire is the recently published "Gloria" by John Rutter. This three movement work is composed for mixed voices, organ, brass and percussion and, as with so many other works by Rutter, is finding almost immediate popularity among serious practitioners of the choral art the world around.

Although continually funded by the Student Government Association, the annual M.U. Concert Choir tours will become increasingly difficult to mount in view of the S.G.A. Budget Committee's decision to deny the Concert Choir's request for touring funds for the 1984-85 school year. Concert Choir was allocated $400 in comparison to the $2,200 allocated to the equally deserving M.U. Wind Ensemble which performs the identical public relations, good will and recruitment functions while representing the entire University on annual tours. Consequently, any and all donations specifically designated for this purpose from any and all Concert Choir alumni are always appreciated and will be added to the Concert Choir account administered by the S.G.A.

The spring semester enrollment of the Concert Choir is a well-balanced group of fifty-four rigorously auditioned mixed voices. New (this semester) accompanist for the choir is Miss Debby Gerhard, a sophomore mathematics major from Barnesville, Pa. Associate Professor, David J. Dick, conductor of the Concert Choir since 1967, will continue his outside conducting activities when he appears as guest conductor of the Cortland County (N.Y.) Chorus on March 22 and 23rd, 1985.

BUSIEST SABBATICAL EVER?

Mr. Donald Stanley reports that his sabbatical activities are proving to be most enjoyable and rewarding. He has been studying tuba privately with Toby Hands of the New York Brass Quintet and the NYC Ballet Orchestra. During a week-long stay in Boston he was able to have lessons with Chester Schmitz of the Boston Symphony, Chester Roberts, retired tubist from the Cleveland Orchestra, and Sam Pilafian, tubist with the Empire Brass Quintet. He also was able to observe the teaching of these professionals. In December he attended the Mid-West Band and Orchestra Clinic held in Chicago and was able to visit with Arnold Jacobs, tubist in the Chicago Symphony, and with Peter Hirschbrunner, famous tuba builder and designer. In addition to the lessons and practice, Mr. Stanley is performing as tubist in the Corning, N.Y. Philharmonic, the Williamsport Symphony, the Commonwealth Brass Quintet, and the Southern Tier Wind Ensemble in Elmira, N.Y.

Professor Stanley also attended the National Conference of the College Band Director's National Association at the University of Colorado in Boulder from February 26 through March 1. At this conference he was elected President of the Eastern Division of the organization for the next two years. He had previously served as Eastern Division Vice President.

Mr. Stanley will be serving as an adjudicator at several festivals later this spring. On May 2 and 3 he will be judging the concert band contest at the Shenandoah Apple Blossom Festival in Winchester, Virginia. On May 4 he will adjudicate the concert band competition at the Mountain States Music Festival on the campus of Arizona State University in Tempe. On May 17 and 31 he will be in Hershey to judge concert bands during the Arts in the Parks Festival.

HIGH SCHOOL CHOIR FESTIVAL

The annual H.S. Choir Festival will be held at Mansfield University on April 24, 25, and 26, 1985, from 9:15 a.m. through 4:15 p.m. daily. As in previous years, participating choirs of Jr. High, Middle School and Sr. High School levels will be scheduled for a 45 minute session which will include a performance of 20 to 25 minutes followed by a 20-25 minute "rehearsal" with one of our guest clinician-conductors. The relaxed, non-competitive and un-pressured climate of these clinic sessions provide a unique and enjoyable learning and musically productive atmosphere for all participants. Application and information forms will be mailed directly. Applications will also be accepted by telephone. Please contact David J. Dick, festival host, at 717-662-4080 for further details.

M.U. MUSIC FACULTY IN P.M.E.A. NEWSLETTER

An early childhood newsletter was sent to all licensed nursery schools and kindergartens in the Commonwealth by the Pennsylvania Music Educators Association. It included the following: an article by Betty Lupkowski, of Mansfield Head-start, on using music during transition periods in the classroom; a review of recent early childhood recordings by Marjorie Kemper, PMEA Early Childhood Chairperson and tips on caring for recordings by Butler Center's Media Technician, Gwen Sumner. If you would like a copy of the Newsletter, send your request to Marjorie Kemper, Butler Center, Mansfield University, Mansfield, Pa. 16933.

Mrs. Kemper, with husband Richard and Mr. & Mrs. Irwin Borodkin, also attended the annual convention of the New York State School Music Association at the Concord Hotel in Lake Kiamisha, N.Y. last November where they greeted many music alumni and potential students. The M.U. Music Department maintained a hospitality and information booth at the convention.

ALBAN BERG -- 100 YEARS

David J. Dick, tenor, Jolyne Jeffers, soprano, Konrad Owens, clarinet, and Angeline Schmid, piano combined efforts for a very successful and well received centennial concert of music by Alban Berg on Sunday, February 10. The program contained 4 late songs for tenor, 7 early songs for soprano, the one and only piano sonata Berg wrote and the 4 Pieces for Clarinet and Piano. Holly Gardinier, our music librarian generously provided program notes. Anyone desiring a copy of the program should contact Mrs. Schmid.

Mrs. Schmid will also journey to Marywood College in Scranton, Pa. to join in their Bach Tri-centennial celebration on March 19 at 8:00 P.M., when she will perform the master's "Chromatic Fantasy", "Goldberg Variations" and the "Sonata, Op. 1" by Alban Berg.

CELEBRATIONS OF BACH

Various members of the Mansfield University faculty are preparing 3 concerts featuring the music of J.S. Bach to celebrate the Tri-centennial of his birth in 1685. Dr. Kent Hill will perform a concert featuring Bach's organ works on Monday, March 18 at 8:00 P.M. in Steadman Theatre.

On March 21st at 8:00 P.M. the Mansfield Brass Quintet will perform transcriptions of Bach keyboard works arranged by music faculty member David Borsheim. Associate Professor David J. Dick will perform the recitative and aria "Mein Verlangen" from Cantata No. 161 ("Komm, du susse Todesstunde"). Mr. Dick will later be joined by another voice faculty member, Mrs. Jolene Jeffers and students Kevin Weibley and Carl Klein in a presentation of Bach's delightfully witty "Coffee Cantata". Dr. Edwin Zdzinski and Dr. Barbara Memory (violins), and Dr. John Little (piano) will perform Bach's Double Violin Concerto in d minor. Pianist Mrs. Angeline Schmid will perform the "Fantasy & Fugue in d minor" and excerpts from the famous "Goldberg" variations, which will be danced (to her own original choreography) by her daughter, Stephanie Schmid, now residing in Portland, Maine.

Heidi Jacobs, successor to Mr. Irwin Borodkin, now retired, as teacher of cello, will include Bach's "Sonata in G" for cello and harpsichord on her faculty recital in Steadman Theatre on Thursday, March 28 at 7:30 P.M. All past, present and future students, colleagues and friends are invited to join the M.U. Music Department in these "celebrations" of J.S. Bach's immortal music.

MBQ NOTES

The Mansfield Brass Quintet recently performed for the churches of Elmira, N.Y. at an Inter-Faith Service held at the First United Church of Christ. Members of the group are Michael Galloway and Judy Saxton, trumpets and cornets; David Borsheim, horn and alto; Stephen McEuen, trombone and euphonium; and James O'Dell, tuba. Mr. O'Dell's tuba recital will feature the quintet in works by Cheatham and Arnold. This will be on February 21 at 8:00 P.M. New settings of Bach's music by MBQ's lone arranger David Borsheim will be performed on the gala Bach Tri-centennial of March 21 at 8:00 P.M. The MBQ will present a concert featuring works by Scarlatti, Schutz, Tallis, Handel and Bach plus the celebrated Quintet Op. 5 of Victor Ewald performed on conical bore instruments similar to those of this period on Sunday, March 31 at 3:00 P.M. in Steadman Theatre.

The quintet would like to perform in your community soon. For further information please write or call David Borsheim in the MU Music Department.
